INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors
TransactionDrivers LLC
dba Kane & Company
Los Angeles, California

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of TransactionDrivers LLC dba Kane & Company as of December 31, 2011, that are filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of TransactionDrivers LLC dba Kane & Company as of December 31, 2011, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

DECEMBER 31, 2011

(1) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

The Company is a registered broker-dealer incorporated under the laws of the State of California maintaining its only office in Los Angeles, California, and is subject to a minimum net capital requirement of $5,000 pursuant to SEC Rule 15c3-1. The Company operates pursuant to the (k)(2)(i) exemptive provision of SEC Rule 15c3-3 and does not hold customer funds or securities. The Company's revenues consist of fees for advisory services in connection with mergers and acquisitions as well as consulting fees.

Method of Accounting

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of management's estimates. Actual results could differ from those estimates and such differences could be material.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at its estimated value at the date contributed by the Managing Member. Depreciation of property and equipment is provided over their estimated useful life which is generally five years using the straight-line method.

Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents at December 31, 2011.

Income Taxes

As a limited liability company, the earnings and losses will be included in the personal income tax returns of the member and taxed depending on his personal tax strategies. Accordingly, the Company does not incur additional income tax obligations, and the financial statements do not include a provision for income taxes, except for the California minimum tax.

(2) SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events and transactions occurring after year-end through the date that the financial statements were available for issuance which was February 3, 2012. No transactions or events were found to that were material enough to require recognition in the financial statements.

(3) NET CAPITAL

The Company is subject to a $5,000 minimum capital requirement pursuant to SEC Rule 15c3-1, which requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital shall not exceed 15 to 1. Net capital and the related net capital ratio fluctuate on a daily basis; however, as of December 31, 2011, the net capital was $24,547 which exceeded the required minimum capital by $19,547 and the aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was not applicable as there was no aggregate indebtedness.
